

Community Paramedicine at Home (CP@home) is a primary-care home visit program conducted by trained community paramedics

Program objectives: Chronic disease prevention and management and health promotion

Eligible Populations

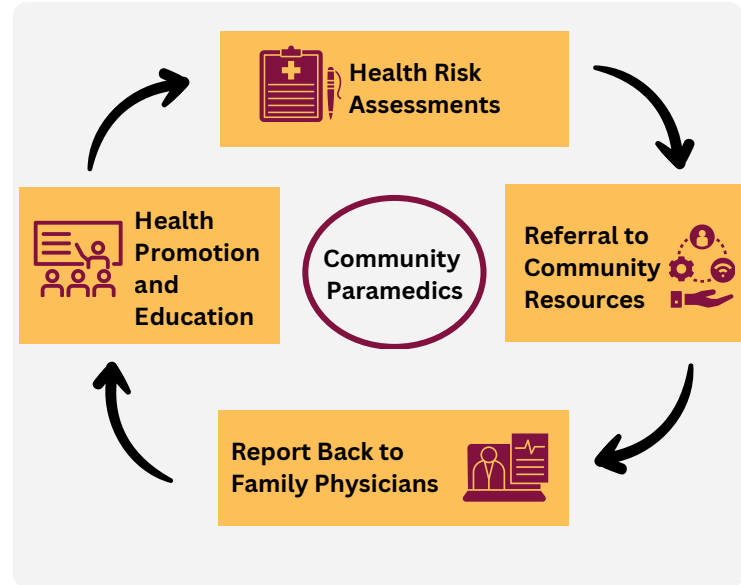

Frequent EMS Callers
 ≥ 3 calls within 6 months &
 ≥ 1 call within 1 month for an ambulance

Lift Assist Callers
 ≥ 1 call for lift assist within 1 month

CP@home Randomized Controlled Trial

CP@home Intervention

OUTCOMES OF CP@home

reduced ambulance calls among frequent callers

13 fewer 911 calls per 100 people

reduced lift assist calls

114 fewer 911 calls per 100 people

Allows for:

- Better healthcare at home
- Improved chronic disease management
- Reduced hospitalization